Who:

Bluffton Police Traffic Team

What:

New vehicles on the road

Where:

Bluffton

The Bluffton Police Department's Traffic Team has received their new cars, which began hitting the street this past weekend.

The new vehicles are sedans rather than the regular Bluffton patrol SUV. These vehicles are also a different color. Each is black instead of blue.

The two-officer Traffic Team was created after receiving a South Carolina Department of Public Safety grant for $205,000 earlier this year. The Team's goal is to remove aggressive and dangerous drivers from Bluffton roads.

"This traffic team and the new vehicles are such an asset to the Town of Bluffton. This team is focused on keeping the Bluffton roads safer for our motoring public," said Bluffton Police Chief Joey Reynolds.
